

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

At the request of a number of patrons we are reproducing the Lotus Gallery of Players complete to date in this number. The Gallery does not by any means include all of the performers whom THE LOTUS deems worthy of a place, nor is the "order of their appearance" indicative of any artistic precedence. In every case the player selected happened to have been prominent during the month in which his or her picture appeared. The Gallery will be continued as a permanent feature of THE LOTUS.
